GENERAL CONFERENCE
Tenth Regular Session
Montevideo, Uruguay, April 27-30, 1987

RESOLUTION 237 (X)

ELEVENTH REGULAR SESSION OF
THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

The General Conference,

Considering that the practice to celebrate the successive Regular Sessions of the General Conference in different State Parties to the Treaty of Tlatelolco has revealed its usefulness, and has contributed to consolidate the efficiency of the actions of the Agency for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America and the Caribbean, allowing also for a better knowledge of the purposes and principles of the Treaty of Tlatelolco by the Latin American public opinion,

Resolves:

1. To request the Secretary General to begin the necessary negotiations to determine the Seat of the Eleventh Regular Session of the General Conference.
2. To request the Secretary General to keep the Council of the Agency informed about these negotiations and in due time, with its agreement, to establish the Seat and to communicate it to all interested States.

(Adopted in the 61st. session held on April 29, 1987)
