GENERAL CONFERENCE
Thirteenth Ordinary Session
Mexico City, May 27-28, 1993

RESOLUTION 294 (XIII)

STATUS OF THE AGENCY'S PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES CONVENTION

The General Conference,

Reiterating the calls made by the General Conference to the Governments of Member States that are not yet Parties to the Privileges and Immunities Convention of the Agency, for them to proceed to sign and ratify said instrument;

Having examined paragraph 37 of the Report of the Secretary General (CG/389) and the Memorandum on the subject (CG/392);

Considering that the signing and ratification of the Privileges and Immunities Convention of the Agency is derived from Article 22 of the Treaty of Tlatelolco and that it is essential for providing the appropriate legal capacity within the territory of the States Parties to the Treaty in which the Agency must perform its functions;

Taking into account that the Treaty of Tlatelolco has been enforced since April 25, 1969,

Resolves:

1. To reiterate to the States Parties that have not yet signed and/or ratified the Privileges and Immunities Convention of the Agency, to do so as soon as possible, so that the legal status of the Agency and its staff, enter fully into force within the territories of each of the Member States for the full performance of its functions as stated in the Treaty of Tlatelolco.

2. To request the Secretary General to renew his efforts before the Governments that have not yet signed or ratified the Convention to do so as soon as possible, bearing in mind that the Agency, as established in Article 22 of the Treaty, must be legally empowered and have the privileges and immunities as may be necessary for the exercise of its functions and the fulfillment of its purposes.
