

GENERAL CONFERENCE
Thirteenth Ordinary Session
Mexico City, May 27-28, 1993

RESOLUTION 295 (XIII)

APPLICATION OF ARTICLE 13 OF THE TREATY OF TLATELOLCO

The General Conference,

Bearing in mind the provisions of Article 13 of the Treaty of Tlatelolco which lays down the obligation of the Member States to sign Bilateral or Multilateral Safeguards Agreements with the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA);

Taking into consideration that, in accordance with subparagraph d) of paragraph 1 of Article 28, this obligation is one of the requisites for the Treaty to enter into force for the Parties that have signed and ratified it,

Resolves:

1. To take note that, to date, 19 Member States have signed Safeguards Agreements with the International Atomic Energy Agency, thereby complying with Article 13 of the Treaty of Tlatelolco.
2. To appeal to the States Parties that have not begun negotiations with the IAEA to sign said Agreements, to do so as soon as possible in order to comply with the obligations contained in Article 13 of the Treaty of Tlatelolco.
3. To request the Government of France, in compliance with Article 1 of Additional Protocol I of the Treaty of Tlatelolco, to begin negotiations with IAEA to sign the Safeguards Agreement(s) for the territories that, de jure or de facto are under its international responsibility and lie within the geographical zone established in the Treaty of Tlatelolco.

4. To take note with satisfaction that, although they are not yet Parties to the Treaty of Tlatelolco, Argentina and Brazil have already signed their respective Safeguards Agreements with the IAEA.
