Fifteenth Regular Session

RESOLUTION CG/Res.362 (XV)

ANNUAL PRIZE TO PERSONS GAINING SPECIAL MERIT IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE TREATY OF TLATELOLCO AND IN OPANAL
ACTIVITIES OR WHO DO SO IN FUTURE

The General Conference,

Aware that persons with special merits have played an outstanding role in the creation of the Treaty of Tlatelolco and the activities of OPANAL or will do so in future;

Taking into consideration the international recognition gained by the Treaty of Tlatelolco and that the Member States of OPANAL should therefore award a special prize to persons who have excelled in collaborating with the Treaty of Tlatelolco and the Agency;

Holding the view that said annual prize should be awarded by consensus among the Members of the Council of OPANAL and the Secretary General and on proposal by the Parties,

Resolves:

1. To establish a special annual prize, to be known as the "Treaty of Tlatelolco Award", consisting of a medal and a diploma, awarded jointly and by consensus by the Council of the Agency and the Secretary General, to persons who have gained special merits in the creation of the Treaty of Tlatelolco and the activities of OPANAL during their three decades of existence, or who do so in the future.
2. To request the Secretary General to distribute this Resolution among the Member States of the Agency.
