

XVI Regular Session of the General Conference
Lima, Peru, 30 November and 1 December 1999.

RESOLUTION CG/Res.382
STATUS OF THE TREATY AND ITS ADDITIONAL PROTOCOLS

The General Conference,

Taking note with satisfaction of the imminent consolidation of the Zone of Application of the Treaty for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America and the Caribbean (Treaty of Tlatelolco);

Bearing in mind Resolutions 267 (E-V), 268 (XII), and 290 (E-VII), which approved a group of amendments to the Treaty of Tlatelolco aimed at reaching the full entry into force of the Treaty;

Recalling Resolution A/RES/53/83 of the General Assembly of the United Nations of 8 January 1999, in which the Assembly in operative paragraph 1 "welcomes the concrete steps taken by some countries of the region during the past year for the consolidation of the regime of military denuclearization established by the Treaty for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America and the Caribbean (Treaty of Tlatelolco)" and in resolute paragraph 2 "urges the countries of the region that have not yet done so to deposit their instruments of ratification of the amendments to the Treaty of Tlatelolco...;"

Also recalling Resolution AG/RES.1622 (XXIX-O/99) of the Organization of American States adopted on 7 June 1999 whose second resolute paragraph "urges the governments of the region that have not yet done so to deposit their instruments of ratification of the Treaty of Tlatelolco, as well as of the amendments to the Treaty, pursuant to Resolutions 267 (E-V), 268 (XII), and 290 (E-VII) of the General Conference of OPANAL";

Emphasizing the importance that the ratification by Cuba of the Treaty of Tlatelolco has for the full universalization of said Treaty,

Resolves:

1. To exhort all of the States Parties of the Treaty of Tlatelolco that have not signed and/or ratified the amendments to it adopted by the General Conference in Resolutions 267 (E-V), 268 (XII), and 290 (E-VII) to take steps to do so as soon as possible in order to achieve the full entry into force of the Treaty.
2. To reiterate its strong desire that the Republic of Cuba conclude the process of total adherence to the Treaty of Tlatelolco by depositing the corresponding instrument of ratification.
3. To renew the mandate of the Good Offices Committee in accordance with its previous Resolutions, especially 215 (X), 243 (XI), 272 (XII), 293 (XIII), 326 (XIV), and 353 (XV), authorizing the Council to take immediate action recommended by the Good Offices Committee, actions that it considers pertinent to the achievement of the objectives noted in the aforementioned Resolutions, and requesting that the Secretary General make all of the facilities available to the Secretariat available to the Good Offices Committee in order to contribute to the success of that body in its previously assigned responsibilities.
4. To request that the Council, the Secretary General, and the Good Offices Committee report on their efforts at the XVII Regular Session of the General Conference.
