RESOLUTION 81 (IV)

Control System: Implementation of Article 13 of the Treaty of Tlatelolco

Recalling that Article 13 of the Treaty of Tlatelolco establishes the obligation for the States Parties, to conclude agreements within specific periods that have ended long ago for the implementation of the Safeguards system of the Agency to the nuclear activities of the States Parties.

Noting in the Memorandum of the Secretary General which appears in document CG/117, that the safeguards agreements referred to in Article 13 of the Treaty have been formalized by the Governments of only nine Member States until now; that the Board of Governors of the International Atomic Energy Agency has already approved the terms of two more agreements negotiated by the Secretariat of OPANAL; and that the negotiations of the remaining seven Member States have not yet been initiated or are still in a very early preliminary state;

Taking very much into account the good will shown by the International Atomic Energy Agency to grant all facilities for the negotiation and conclusion on the safeguards agreements referred to in Article 13 of the Treaty,

Bearing in mind its previous Resolutions 19 (I), of September 10, 1970, 31 (II), of September 9, 1971 and 51 (III), of August 23, 1973, as well as the repeated recommendations that the Council has made on this matter in its Resolutions C-1 and C-2 of November 17, 1970, C-4 of August 16, 1972, C-5 of January 18, 1973, C-9 and C-10, of August 17 and November 22 of 1974, respectively.
