GENERAL CONFERENCE
Fifth Regular Session
Caracas, April 19-21, 1977

RESOLUTION 92 (V)

Report of the Good Offices Committee

The General Conference,

Bearing in mind Resolutions 17 (I) of September 8, 1969, 35 and 36 (II) of September 9, 1971 which created and renewed the original mandate of the Good Offices Committee and extended it so that this organ "may give, in the way it considers most appropriate, its assistance to Member States of OPANAL in any situation which will make it necessary, as well as in any other negotiation aimed to attain the admittance of those States of the region which are not yet Members of the Agency, as well as the adhesion to Additional Protocols I and II of the Treaty, of those States for whose signature and ratification the Protocols are still open";

Recalling Resolutions 48 and 49 (III) of August 23, 1973 and 75 (IV) of April 17, 1975 which renewed the mandate of the Good Offices Committee and stressed the need to find formula so that Guyana may become Party to the Treaty;

Having examined the Report of the Good Offices Committee submitted in document CG/146,

Resolves:

1. To renew the mandate of the Good Offices Committee in terms of operative paragraph 1 of Resolution 36 (II).

2. To request the Secretary-General that, in the same way he has been doing it thus far, give to the Good Offices Committee all the available facilities within the reach of the Secretariat to contribute to the success of the functions assigned to this organ.

3. To request the Good Offices Committee to inform the General Conference on the Sixth Regular Session of the results of its negotiations.

(Adopted at the 28th Session, held on April 20, 1977).
