GENERAL CONFERENCE
Fifth Regular Session
Caracas, April 19-21, 1977

RESOLUTION 100 (V)

Control System:

Implementation of Article 14 of the Treaty of Tlatelolco

The General Conference,

Bearing in mind that, as it has been already expressed on several occasions, the functioning of the Control System established in the Treaty for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America, is comprehended as a whole and that the provisions set forth in Article 14 of said Treaty must be executed by Member States so that the aforementioned Control System may have its due efficacy;

Aware that the fulfilment of the provisions of Article 14 of the Treaty do not imply any practical difficulties for the Governments of Member States, and

Recalling its previous Resolutions 32 (II) of September 9, 1971, 52 (III) of August 23, 1973 and 82 (IV) of April 18, 1975, as well as the concern of the Council expressed in Resolution C-3 of November 17, 1970,

Resolves:

To reiterate to the Governments of Member States its interest in their opportune compliance of the obligations derived from Article 14 of the Treaty, emphasizing on the need to comply not only with the terms of paragraph 1 of said Article by means of the semi-annual declaration established therein, but also with the reports referred to in paragraph 2 of the same article of the Treaty.

(Adopted on the 29th Session, held on April 21, 1977).
