CG/RES. 101 (V)
April 21, 1977

GENERAL CONFERENCE
Fifth Regular Session,
Caracas, April 19-21, 1977

RESOLUTION 101 (V)

Implementation of Article 23 of the Treaty of Tlatelolco

The General Conference,

Recalling its Resolutions 53 (III) of August 23, 1973 and 83 (IV) of April 18, 1975, whereby the request made in its previous Resolution 33 (II) of September 9, 1971 was reiterated to Governments of Member States in regard to their obligation to keep the Agency informed of all "conventions, agreements and any other kind of arrangements, bilateral or multilateral, concluded on matters concerned with nuclear co-operation between them or with third States, in order to register and notify them to the other Member States", in accordance with Article 23 of the Treaty;

Noting with satisfaction that the Governments of Member States have started to observe their obligations in the light of Article 23 of the Treaty of Tlatelolco, as it is reported in the Memorandum of the Secretary-General which appears in document CG/149,

Resolves:

To reiterate its interest in the notification by Governments of Member States to the Secretary-General, of all commitments they may have concluded on an international level, as required in Resolution 33 (II) of the General Conference, and do likewise in due time as they conclude commitments of this nature in the future.

(Adopted on the 29th Session, held on April 21, 1977).
