- (1) Resolution CG/E/Res.267 (E-V), adopted on 3 July 1990, resolved to include in the Treaty's legal name the words "and the Caribbean"; hence, to make this modification in the legal denomination established in Article 7 of the Treaty.
- (2) Resolution CG/Res.268 (XII), adopted on 10 May 1991, replace paragraph 2 of Article 25 of the Treaty with the following text:

"The condition of State Party to the Treaty of Tlatelolco shall be restricted to independent States which are situated within the Zone of application of the Treaty in accordance with Article 4 of same, and with paragraph 1 of the present Article, and which were members of the United Nations as of December 10, 1985, as well as to the non-autonomous territories mentioned in document OAS/CER.P, AG/doc. 1939/85 of November 5, 1985, once they attain their independence."

- (3) Resolution CG/E/Res.290 (E-VII), adopted on 26 August 1992, open for signature the following amendments to the Treaty:

Article 14 “Reports of the Contracting Parties”

2. The Contracting Parties to the Treaty shall simultaneously transmit to the Agency a copy of the reports submitted to the International Atomic Energy Agency which relate to matters subject of this Treaty that are relevant to the work of the Agency.

3. The information furnished by the Contracting Parties shall not be, totally or partially, disclosed or transmitted to third parties, by the addressees of the reports, except when the Contracting Parties give their express consent.

Article 15 “Complementary or supplementary information”

1. At the request of any of the Contracting Parties and with the authorization of the Council, the Secretary General may request any of the Contracting Parties to provide the Agency with complementary or supplementary information regarding any extraordinary event or circumstance which affects the compliance with this Treaty, explaining his reasons. The Contracting Parties undertake to co-operate promptly and fully with the Secretary General.

2. The Secretary General shall inform the Council and the Contracting Parties forthwith of such requests and of the respective replies.

Article 16 “Special inspections” [the following text substitutes Article 16]

1. The International Atomic Energy Agency has the power of carrying out special inspections in accordance with Article 12 and with the agreements referred to in Article 13 of this Treaty.

2. At the request of any of the Contracting Parties and in accordance with the procedures established in Article 15 of this Treaty, the Council may submit for the consideration of the International Atomic Energy Agency a request that the necessary mechanisms be put into operation to carry out a special inspection.

3. The Secretary General shall request the Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency to transmit to him in a timely manner the information forwarded to the Board of Governors of the IAEA relating to the conclusion of the special inspection. The Secretary General shall make this information available to the Council promptly.

4. The Council, through the Secretary General shall transmit this information to all the Contracting Parties.

Article 19 “Relations with the International Atomic Energy Agency”

The Agency may conclude such agreements with the International Atomic Energy Agency as are authorized by the General Conference and as it considers likely to facilitate the efficient operation of the Control System established by this Treaty.

Article 20 “Relations with other international organizations” [article of the Treaty are re-enumerated from Article 20 on]

1. The Agency may also enter into relations with any international organization or body, especially any which may be established in the future to supervise disarmament or measures for the control of armaments in any part of the world.

2. The Contracting Parties may, if they see fit, request the advice of the Inter-American Nuclear Energy Commission on all technical matters connected with the application of this Treaty with which the Commission is competent to deal under its Statute.
